

SHARE TRADING POLICY

The Company's share trading policy regulates Dealings by directors, officers, employees and their Associates, in Company Securities.

This policy has been formulated to ensure that directors, officers, employees and their Associates are aware of the legal restrictions on Dealing in Company Securities while a person is in possession of Inside Information. This policy is also intended to minimise any misunderstandings or suspicions that staff are Dealing in Company Securities while in possession of Inside Information.

Consistent with the legal prohibitions on insider trading, under this share trading policy, directors, officers, employees and their Associates are prohibited from Dealing in the Company Securities if the parties concerned are in possession of any Inside Information, or within the following blackout periods:

Event	Period
Release of Preliminary Final Result to ASX	From midnight 30 September until the next ASX trading day after the day on which the Company's full year results are released to ASX.
Release of Half Year Result to ASX	From midnight 31 March until the next ASX trading day after the day on which the Company's half year results are released to ASX.
Annual General Meeting	The period of two weeks prior to the AGM.
Other	During any such other periods as the Board of directors of the Company determines from time to time.

Dealing in Company Securities outside the blackout periods listed above is subject to the proviso that the parties concerned are not in possession of any Inside Information. Dealing is prohibited if that proposed Dealing could be perceived by the market as taking advantage of the party's position in an inappropriate way.

If a director, officer, employee or their Associate proposes to Deal in Company Securities outside any of the above blackout periods, a "Notification Form to Deal in Select Harvests Securities" in the form set out in Appendix A must be completed and forwarded to the relevant "Notification Officer". The director, officer, or employee (as the case may be) must receive written approval from the Notification Officer before Dealing in Company Securities.

For the purposes of this policy, the relevant Notification Officer for directors, officers, and employees are as follows:

Designated person and their Associates	Notification Officer(s)
Chairman	Chairman of the Audit Committee
Non-Executive Directors	Chairman
Managing Director	Chairman
Senior Officers	Managing Director
Employees	Company Secretary

Exceptions and variations to the policy:

a) Executive share option plan

Directors, officers, or employees participating, or eligible to participate, in the Company's share option plan are permitted to:

1. accept an invitation to participate in a grant of options under the plan;
2. exercise options to acquire Company Securities (as applicable) under the plan; and
3. exercise any other action or right permitted under the plan, at any time, whether or not the above actions occur within the blackout periods specified above, as long as they are not in possession of Inside Information.

b) Payment by shares in lieu of cash

Directors, officers, or employees who desire to receive payment of directors' fees or salary by way of shares in lieu of cash are permitted to make an election in writing to receive payment by the purchase of shares on the share market on the following conditions:

1. an election to receive payment by shares in lieu of cash must be made outside a blackout period on the basis that the director or employee is not in possession of any Inside Information;
2. an election made outside a blackout period to receive payment by shares in lieu of cash must be for a minimum period of 12 months; and
3. a director or employee can, by notice in writing, withdraw an election to receive payment by shares in lieu of cash only after a full 12 month period has elapsed and only outside a blackout period after the expiry of the 12 month period, provided the director or employee is not in possession of any Inside Information.

For clarity, the actual purchase of shares on the share market by the Company on behalf of the director or employee will occur on a quarterly basis and may be within a blackout period detailed above.

c) Exceptional circumstances

If there are exceptional circumstances and the person concerned declares that they do not possess any Inside Information, the applicable Notification Officer may give a Clearance, after consulting with, and obtaining approval from, the Chairman, allow an officer or employee to sell Company Securities within a blackout period. Should the Chairman or any director wish to sell Company Securities within a blackout period, the applicable Notification Officer will need to seek the approval or otherwise of the full Board of directors of the Company, before giving a Clearance.

Exceptional circumstances may include:

1. if a person is required by court order, or enforceable undertaking (e.g. in a bona fide family settlement) to transfer or sell Company Securities or there is another overriding legal requirement to do so; or
2. if a person has a pressing financial commitment that cannot otherwise be satisfied and all reasonable alternatives have been investigated.

A tax liability will not generally constitute a pressing financial commitment unless it fits the definition in 2 above.

Clearance will not be given:

1. retrospectively;
2. if there is a matter about which there is Inside Information in relation to Company Securities (regardless of if the applicant is aware of it) when Clearance is requested; or
3. if there is other reason to believe that the proposed Dealing breaches this policy.

A request for Clearance in the form set out in Appendix B must be given to the applicable Notification Officer at least five business days prior to the proposed disposal of Company Securities.

This policy encourages directors, officers, and employees to be long-term holders of Company Securities, and discourages short-term trading.

It also reinforces the Company's obligations under the ASX listing rules to notify ASX within five business days after any Dealing in Company Securities, which results in a change in the relevant interests of the director in Company Securities. As contemplated by the ASX listing rules, each director has agreed in writing with the Company to provide notice of such Dealings to the Company within two business days of any such Dealing to enable the Company to comply with its corresponding obligation to notify ASX.

Derivatives Prohibitions

Directors, officers and employees who participate in the Company's equity based remuneration plan, and their Associates, must not:

1. enter into any Derivatives that limit the economic risk of holding Company Securities allocated to them under the plan prior to the vesting or exercise of those Company Securities or while they are subject to a trading restriction; or
2. use Derivatives in relation to any unvested Company Securities in a way which would have the effect of providing greater benefit than would otherwise have been realised by the relevant director, officer, employee, or their Associate, in respect of the unvested Company Securities.

Margin loans

Margin loans to support an investment in Securities can compromise compliance with this policy, as the loan's terms may compel the sale of Securities during a blackout period or when the director, officer or employee has relevant Inside Information.

Directors, officers or employees are prohibited from entering into margin loan arrangements to fund the acquisition of Company Securities or in relation to which Company Securities may be used as security against loan repayment.
